3 Extract from the 3rd members minute in Regis file 19-19 relating to the retirement from service of Hanumantha Rao, Clerk of the Bapatla Sub Registry Office:-

"It seems to me that the retirement of a petty official after completion of his 60th year should not be made to come up to Govt to sanction and that the Head of the department may well be empowered under article 324 M&SR to sanction retirement benefits of petty officials on the completion of their 55th year or at least on their completing 60th year. This question may be asked to be separately examined in the Finance Branch"

Hon 20/8/1920

In view of the ~~two~~ extracts it seems to me that the existing articles 321 to 329 which are unnecessarily elaborate may be revised and simplified. It seems desirable to substitute for these articles something like Art 459 of C.S.R. with suitable modifications to make the provisions conform to local standing orders.

If the above proposal is approved, I would suggest the following ~~modifications in the rules contained in~~ 1) clauses (a), (b) and (c) [of Rule 459 C.S.R] may be incorporated as they are.

2) Clause (d) delegates powers given in previous clauses to the authority competent to fill the appt. of the Offrs who is req. to retire or who is retained in service.

Under the [rules in the] M.S. R as the new Standg it is only the Rev Cent & the Chief Commandant to whom the Govt have delegated the powers of compg retirement of subordinate Offrs under Rule 324 (a) (2), the power of permitting non gazetted subordinates to remain in service if they continue G.O. no 72 1144-96 S.R. 3924 dt 5.9.17. The effect of this has been delegated to all heads of depts, or Comds of Offrs of Corresp~~ding~~ ~~number of heads of depts~~ rank.

In 1917 Mr Datta suggested to Govt the delegation to all heads of depts and of Comds and other Offrs of the rank of Comds of the power of retiring their non gazetted subordinates after attaining their age of superannuation, but NOTE—Contn. sheet.

Serial No.

Govt declined to sanction any such general delegation: the third number has now suggested that the power of entering subordinate officers below the grade of Jamedars in the Police Deptt may be delegated to the IGP

2. The other suggestion contained in the extract on page 2 of the note has been partly given effect to in S.O. for as retirement after 30 years to be considered - vide new rule under clause A of Art 3 as inserted by Govt letter of correction of 20.4.19 under which the authority competent to fill up the appt if vacant can order the retirement of a N.S. officer over 30 years of age treating the absence as a cause of inefficiency. Needless past of the authority heads of depts to sanction retirement of posts Heads on completion of their 55th year has now to be considered.

~~Clause (d) of the Govt~~

10 orders are now solicited ~~from~~ whether all or any of the heads of depts may be given this power. On this ~~order~~ will depend how clause (d) has to be adopted in our Rules.

Clause (e) of the Govt may ~~have~~ been also be adopted as they are

Under the existing rules the power of retiring non-gazetted subordinates after they attain the age of superannuation is not delegated to Heads of Departments, except the Revenue Commissioner and the Chief Commandant (Vide Article 324 -"C" and "D", Mysore Service Regulations.)

2. The variation between the Mysore Service Regulations and the rules in British India in this matter was brought up for consideration with the revision of the Mysore Service Regulations by the Special Officer, - - Mr. Shamanna. The power to order the retirement of officers is delegated in British India to the authorities competent to fill up appointments.

3. The question was discussed at a meeting of the Council held on the 3rd November 1920 and they are opinion that "Heads of Departments may be given the power to order the retirement of officials on a pay of Rs:50 and under, on attaining superannuation age."

Page 10 of Office Notes

4. Clause (d) of Article 324, Mysore Service Regulations may be revised as under, with a view to extend the powers of the Chief Commandant delegated to him under the clause as it now stands and for giving to the other officers specified in clause (b) the power to order retirement of officials according to the above resolution.

> "(d) The officers specified in clause (b) except the Revenue Commissioner, whose powers are defined in clause (c) are authorised to order the retirement of superannuated officers under them whose pay is Rs.50 or less."

List IV

Alterations of a material character which require to be considered and ordered on separately.

Serial No.	Articles of M.S.R. and C.S.R.	Points of difference.	Suggestions made.	Financial Secretary's opinion.	Orders of Govt.
1.	29.A.C.S.R.	Definitions of 'Head of Department'.	Whether we should have a definition and a list of Heads of Departments is for consideration. This will avoid the necessity of having long lists of officers in articles in which powers are delegated.	This question requires separate discussion and cannot be settled here. It may be separately taken up. We need not have this rule in the re-print now under compilation.
1.A.	49 C.S.R. 31 M.S.R.		Whether we should have a medical certificate for inferior servants is for consideration.	This is a new point and may be considered separately.
2.	51.C.S.R. and 54 M.S.R.	Power of appointing persons over 25 years old is delegated to Heads of Departments in C.S.R.	Whether this may be adopted is for consideration.	This should be separately considered.

2.a.	23 A.B.C. & 32 C.S.R. 20 M.S.R.		The C.S.R. articles give new definitions and classifications of Duty' Deputation and Local Allowances. Whether these and the consequential alterations made in some other articles are to be adopted is for orders.	Matter for separate consideration.

3.	57 Rule 1 C.S.R. and 41 M.S.R.	C.S.R. rule permits an officer allowed to go outside his jurisdiction to take the necessary establishment.	It is for consideration if this rule may be entered below 41 M.S.R.	Has to be separately considered.
72-74 C.S.R. and 49-51 M.S.R.		The general structure of these articles relating to receipt of extra - remuneration by Government officers differs in the two Regulations.	The M.S.R. may be revised as in the C.S.R. which is more logically worded. The principle in 72 C.S.R for giving extra remuneration venues is also different from that in article 49 M.S.R. and the limits up to which Heads of Departments may sanction is higher. If the articles are revised as suggested it is for consideration. (1) if any powers are to be delegated for giving remuneration from General Revenues as in 72 (d) C.S.R. and (2) if Heads of Departments may permit subordinates to receive up to Rs.500 as in 74 (c) C.S.R. from private persons. As regards (1) the power may	This has to be considered separately.

			be kept with Government as at present and as regards (2) the limit of Rs.50 found in H.S.R.51 (c) is too low and may be raised to atleast - Rs.200 if not to Rs.500 as in C.S.R.
5.	76 A-82 C.S.R.and 53-56 M.S.R.		It is for consideration if article 76 B.C.S.R. allowing persons appointed to temporary appointments, only acting allowance ordinarily is to be included in H.S.R. I think it is not necessary to insert it.	The changes are material and require separate consideration.
6.	81 C.S.R. 56 M.S.R.	The proviso under the 1st sentence.		May be separately considered.

7.	147 (iii) C.S.R. and 75 (iii) M.S.R.			There should be no special rule of disability in regard to appointmen s on less than Rs.100 to be separately considered.
8.	185 C.S.R. 115 M.S.R.		It is for consideration if the last sentence in C.S.R. referring to 'duty allowance' may be inserted in M.S.R. This would be necessary if we adopted the classification of some allowances as 'duty allowances' as done in British India.	This requires separate consideration as we have not introduced any classification of local allowance.
9.	288 C.S.R. 198 M.S.R.	C.S.R. rule applies to Jail warders and Excise Establishment also (Hospital leave)	Similarly M.S.R. rule may be extended to them.	This may be separately considered.
10.	288 A.C.S.R.	Maternity leave to school Mistresses.	We may have a corresponding article in M.S.R.	Yes. But the benefit of the rule should be extended to women in Medical Department.

19.	17 C.S.R.		This article of C.S.R may be inserted in M.S.R. after 22?.	This may be separately considered.
20.	353 C.S.R. 240 M.S.R.		The addition in the C.S.R to grant reduced pensions for officers removed for misconduct inefficiency, etc., may be entered in M.S.R.	This requires separate consideration.

Serial No.	Articles of M.S.R. and C.S.R.	Points of difference.	Suggestions made.	Financial Secretary's Opinion.	Orders of Government.
35	1000 and 1001 C.S.R. & 539 M.S.R.		'Official superior' is vague. The particular officers to whom the power is delegated have to be mentioned. 'General Sanction' is not found in C.S.R. Is out of place and may be omitted. General sanction when given will be entered in M.S.R. itself and there will be no other General sanction.	To be separately considered.
36	610 M.S.R.		The reason for this is not clear. It may be omitted.	do
37	1141 C.S.R.		Why not insert rules re: T.A. of Dewan? this is not now found.	do
38	1159 C.S.R. 640 M.S.R.		The words 'on tour' may be inserted after 'an officer'.	do
39	1104 C.S.R. 612 & 613 M.S.R.		The C.S.R. article is simpler and more liberal and may be substituted for M.S.R. rules when privilege leave intervenes on transfer.	do
